

Tony Hyman functions as the official photographer allowing the League to have a photographic record of all members, he also helps with forums, and Adopt-a-Poll work. Boyd Horne reports he has served on Budget and Audit committees, moderated expert presentations on water issues of the County, served as the League representative on the County Water Advisory Committee, helped with candidates forums, non-profit organization elections, and voter information forums organized by Voter Service directors, Sara Horne and Vera Wallen, served on a committee to solicit League observers for various city and County meetings, helped with Cal Poly elections, and assisted in several of the League public television shows, SLO Democracy.

Neil Havlik is a member of the Salon Series Committee and is off-board advisor of the Natural Resources portfolio with Jim Patterson (not pictured). Clint Weirick served as a Board member as well as acting parliamentarian during 2012-13. County Supervisor Bruce Gibson has participated as a candidate in panel discussions and forums, but emphasized that he counts himself as a “loyal fan and supporter” of the League. Frank Jarratt served on “many, many” Budget and Audit Committees, forums, League-conducted elections, and as a poll worker.

One of our newest members, Henry “Bud” Hankins has stepped up to work with the Civil Discourse Action Committee in which, Jim Scoggins has spent countless hours assisting Study Committee Chair Sharon Kimball. William Warren, long time member, told us he spent a year or two in the Observer Corps monitoring government meetings in the Cambria area complete with reports to the Board. “It was an interesting exercise,” said Bill, “We ought to be doing more of those.”

Here’s a bouquet of thanks to our League men; we couldn’t do it without you!
